Re: FOI Request - FOI/P189/2018

Dear Mr Foxe

I refer to your request of 14 November 2018 made under the Freedom of Information Act, 2014 where you sought records in relation to:

"- copies of any records discussing whether the government would continue to publish details of pensions paid to former officeholders, ministers, etc due to concerns over GDPR. This request to cover period 1 January 2018 to date of receipt of this request.

Searches of any relevant private email addresses and/or messaging services should be considered when processing this request."

I, as the Deciding Officer, have now made a final decision to part grant your request on 7 December 2018.

This letter explains the response to your FOI request in the following parts:

1. A schedule of all of the records covered by your request;
2. A statement of how you can appeal this decision should you wish to do so.

1. Schedule of records

A schedule is enclosed with this letter which shows the documents that the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform considers relevant to your request.

2. Rights of appeal

Under the FOI Acts, I am required to inform you that if you are not satisfied with this decision you may appeal in writing to the Freedom of Information Unit, Department of Public Expenditure and Reform, Upper Merrion Street, Dublin 2. You must make this appeal within four weeks from the date of this notification (the making of a late appeal may be allowed in certain circumstances). The appeal process, which is known as internal review, will involve a complete reconsideration of the matter by a more senior member of the staff of this Department.

The decision on the internal review will be given within 3 weeks of receipt of your letter. Please note that there is a fee of €30 for making an appeal or €20 for medical card holders. The fee, which should accompany your appeal, can be paid by way of electronic fund transfer to the Accountant, Department of Public Expenditure and Reform.

Publication

All non-personal FOI requests will be recorded on an FOI disclosure log which will be published on the Department of Public Expenditure and Reform website in due course.

Should you wish to discuss this matter further please do not hesitate to contact me on (01) 604 [REDACTED] or by email at [REDACTED]

Yours sincerely,

Subject: GDPR - publication of pension amounts to former office holders on DFIN website

Hi Helen

It has been brought to my attention by the Department's Accounts/Exchequer/PMG Section that the D/Finance publishes the information (which contains personal data) contained in this link on its website.

<https://www.finance.gov.ie/wp-content/uploads/2017/07/Finance-Accounts-2016-Statement-1.4-Pensions-paid-to-Fomer-Constitutional-Ministerial-and-Judicial-Office-Holders.pdf>

I understand that DPER is the controller of this information and the D/Fin processes the data (i.e. publishes this information). As such, article 28 of the GDPR refers.

Appreciate if we could have a chat about this publication given that it identifies individuals – I'm not aware of the legal basis for processing this personal data. Even if the names of the individuals were anonymised, it wouldn't be that difficult to identify the former office holders if compared with last year's publication.

I'm at meetings most of this morning but will catch you later.

Thanks

Regards

Colm

My understanding is that Jimmy McMeel forwarded AG's advice to Colm on this issue some years ago - do we now need similar advice?

Subject: GDPR - publication of pension amounts to former office holders on DFIN website

Hi Helen

It has been brought to my attention by the Department's Accounts/Exchequer/PMG Section that the D/Finance publishes the information (which contains personal data) contained in this link on its website.

<https://www.finance.gov.ie/wp-content/uploads/2017/07/Finance-Accounts-2016-Statement-1.4-Pensions-paid-to-Former-Constitutional-Ministerial-and-Judicial-Office-Holders.odf>

I understand that DPER is the controller of this information and the D/Fin processes the data (i.e. publishes this information). As such, article 28 of the GDPR refers.

Appreciate if we could have a chat about this publication given that it identifies individuals – I'm not aware of the legal basis for processing this personal data. Even if the names of the individuals were anonymised, it wouldn't be that difficult to identify the former office holders if compared with last year's publication.

I'm at meetings most of this morning but will catch you later.

Thanks

Regards

Colm

Colm emailed me on 29 June regarding this advising that he wanted to talk about same. He advised that day that he was tied up in meetings that morning and would contact me later in the day.

On 10 July I indicated that my initial view would be that unless someone could identify a lawful basis to publish the data it shouldn't be published and anything up already should be removed.

Additionally I asked Colm if we could try and catch a few minutes on the 11 July to discuss. I asked Colm to let me know his availability for the 11 July after which we could get back to Benny but I have not heard anything since.

I haven't seen the legal advice previously provided to Colm regarding FOI to which Benny refers, this might be useful. It may be that legal advice would be required but again as I stated on 10 July, while there may well be a lawful basis to process the data, unless someone can identify a lawful basis to publish or valid reason to publish I would be wary to do so. What applied before 25 May and what applies now are two very different things.

If someone can let me have a copy of the legal advice previously supplied to Colm, I will have a look at that and discuss with the legal adviser and get back to you all.

Any final decision on this for me? How does it reconcile to FOI legislation where the information would normally be releasable?

My understanding is that Jimmy McMeel forwarded AG's advice to Colm on this issue some years ago - do we now need similar advice?

I should have also said that while the advice concerned FOI the data protection dimension, in so far as it is referred to, was the previous regime i.e. before the EU's directly applicable GDPR came in to being.

Subject: RE: GDPR - publication of pension amounts to former office holders on DFIN website

Muireann

Colm emailed me on 29 June regarding this advising that he wanted to talk about same. He advised that day that he was tied up in meetings that morning and would contact me later in the day.

On 10 July I indicated that my initial view would be that unless someone could identify a lawful basis to publish the data it shouldn't be published and anything up already should be removed.

Additionally I asked Colm if we could try and catch a few minutes on the 11 July to discuss. I asked Colm to let me know his availability for the 11 July after which we could get back to Benny but I have not heard anything since.

I haven't seen the legal advice previously provided to Colm regarding FOI to which Benny refers, this might be useful. It may be that legal advice would be required but again as I stated on 10 July, while there may well be a lawful basis to process the data, unless someone can identify a lawful basis to publish or valid reason to publish I would be wary to do so. What applied before 25 May and what applies now are two very different things.

If someone can let me have a copy of the legal advice previously supplied to Colm, I will have a look at that and discuss with the legal adviser and get back to you all.

Helen

Subject: GDPR - publication of pension amounts to former office holders on DFIN website

Hi Helen

It has been brought to my attention by the Department's Accounts/Exchequer/PMG Section that the D/Finance publishes the information (which contains personal data) contained in this link on its website.

<https://www.finance.gov.ie/wp-content/uploads/2017/07/Finance-Accounts-2016-Statement-1.4-Pensions-paid-to-Fomer-Constitutional-Ministerial-and-Judicial-Office-Holders.pdf>

I understand that DPER is the controller of this information and the D/Fin processes the data (i.e. publishes this information). As such, article 28 of the GDPR refers.

Appreciate if we could have a chat about this publication given that it identifies individuals – I'm not aware of the legal basis for processing this personal data. Even if the names of the individuals were anonymised, it wouldn't be that difficult to identify the former office holders if compared with last year's publication.

I'm at meetings most of this morning but will catch you later.

Thanks

Regards

Colm

Subject: Finance Accounts 2017 and associated material

Brian,

Please find attached the following for publication on the website this evening, as agreed on Wednesday:

1. Finance Accounts 2017. An Irish version (Cuntais Airgeadais 2017) will follow very shortly – just finalising the checking of the translation.
2. Statement 1.6 – Annual Allowances payable to Parliamentary Leaders in 2017.
3. Revised Exchequer Statement as at end December 2017 which takes account of changes made during audit of the National Debt Account and the Finance Accounts 2016. Can you please place this revised Exchequer Statement where the original end 2017 Exchequer Statement and related material is published?

With regard to the material on Statement 1.4 (Payments to former Constitutional, Ministerial and Judicial Office Holders) which we have released in previous years, we have been advised by Department of Public Expenditure and Reform that as the information constitutes personal data, that is, the relevant office holders are identified or identifiable, the material should not be published and therefore I am not including that information this year.

Any questions on this element of the material should be addressed to Dept. Public Expenditure and Reform.

If you have any questions on any of the attached please let me know.

Good afternoon Benny

Further to our telephone conversation on Wednesday 18 July I sought advice from our own in house legal adviser. Like me he is of the view that if the information constitutes personal data that is, if the relevant office holders are identified or identifiable then he agrees that the material should not be published as a matter of routine by yourselves in the Department of Finance.

Bearing that in mind I, as Data Protection Officer in DPER, would appreciate if the practice of issuing this material with the Finance Accounts as a matter of routine ceases with immediate effect.

As indicated on the phone when we last spoke if any journalist subsequently seeks the relevant information under an FOI request that can be dealt with appropriately at that time.

Kind Regards
Helen

I thought he was due back 30th July? Our intention, as flagged to the Secretary General and the Minister was to publish the Finance Accounts and related material on 27th. I can hold off publishing the pensions material until such stage as we know where we stand vis a vis GDPR.

I should have also said that while the advice concerned FOI the data protection dimension, in so far as it is referred to, was the previous regime i.e. before the EU's directly applicable GDPR came in to being.

Subject: GDPR - publication of pension amounts to former office holders on DFIN website

Hi Helen

It has been brought to my attention by the Department's Accounts/Exchequer/PMG Section that the D/Finance publishes the information (which contains personal data) contained in this link on its website.

<https://www.finance.gov.ie/wp-content/uploads/2017/07/Finance-Accounts-2016-Statement-1.4-Pensions-paid-to-Former-Constitutional-Ministerial-and-Judicial-Office-Holders.pdf>

I understand that DPER is the controller of this information and the D/Fin processes the data (i.e. publishes this information). As such, article 28 of the GDPR refers.

Appreciate if we could have a chat about this publication given that it identifies individuals – I'm not aware of the legal basis for processing this personal data. Even if the names of the individuals were anonymised, it wouldn't be that difficult to identify the former office holders if compared with last year's publication.

I'm at meetings most of this morning but will catch you later.

Thanks

Regards

Colm
